People's Choice Sauce

Judging starts at 2:00 pm and ends at 3:30 pm. (Times may be subject to change and contestants notified in pre-contest communications).

Contestants will be supplied with 1-oz. plastic cups to place samples into.

Peoples' Choice will be sampled at each contestant's booth.

Judges must show a sauce token to receive a tasting, but they do not give the token to the contestant, as they use the token to vote.

Once the judges have decided on their favorite sauce, they will place their voting token into a box (supplied by GEBYBBQ) located at the contestant's booth.

Judges may receive as many samples as they like from contestants. The more sauce you have to sample, the more likely you may be to win.

Sauce may be served with chips, bread or pretzels, but only the sauce should be in the cups provided.

Tokens will be collected at 3:45 pm. (Times may be subject to change and contestants notified in pre-contest communications).

A judge may buy more than one token and may vote more than once for any particular sauce or may make multiple votes.

NOTE: When arriving, please ensure that you inform a GEBYBBQ greeter that you are competing in people's choice sauce. We will try to group best sauce contestants together, to ensure even exposure to the public.
